DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO OCTOBER 13.

EASTERN STATES.

The Honored Dead.

ALBANY, Oct. 12.—Governor Hoffman has issued a proclamation eulogistic of Mr. Seward, and ordered all State Departments to be closed on Monday, and flags of the buildings placed at half mast.

AUBURN, Oct. 12.—The funeral of Mr. Seward on Monday will take place at St. Peter's Church at 2:30 P. M. After the services another opportunity will be given to view the remains.

Seward's Funeral at His Home.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen to day, appropriate resolutions were passed, and it was voted to attend the funeral in a body. In response to the Mayor's proclamation, nearly all the stores in the city are being draped in mourning. The City Hall is profusely draped within and without. All business will be suspended on Monday from noon until sunset. The Forty Ninth Regiment will attend the funeral in citizens' dress, but there will be no display of military organizations in the procession.

The Board of Trade of Oswego, will be present, and a large number of distinguished citizens from different parts of the country.

Thunder in the Keystone State.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—The official vote of the State, except twelve counties, (those estimated,) show Hartranft's majority to be 35,736.

Reform Democrats in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Convention of the Reform Democracy met to-day in Apollo Hall. Some thirteen hundred delegates were present. James O'Brien was unanimously nominated for Mayor.

Spirited Races—Harry Bassett Beaten.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—At Jerome Park, this afternoon, the third race, dash of a mile and five-eighths was won by Ostolan beating seven horses; time, 2:59½. The great interest of the day was centered in the four mile dash between Harry Bassett and Monarchist, and the excitement ran very high. Spectators crowded every available spot and the most intense anxiety was exhibited. The two horses ran neck and neck all the way to the beginning of the 4th mile. Bassett played out after the third mile. Monarchist worked nobly, and won the race by two hundred yards, amid much cheering, in 7 33¼.

Shocking Murder.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.—A shocking murder was perpetrated in Oldham county on Wednesday. A man named Wilson was beaten to death by another man named Yarder. Both parties were disreputable characters.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Funeral Services.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—All of the Departments will be closed and draped with mourning on Monday, in honor of the memory of Mr. Seward.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The San Juan Island Question—The London Times on the Death of Seward.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A Berlin special to the Telegraph says that it is believed that the decision of the Emperor on the San Juan boundary question will be favorable to the United States.

The Times' obituary of Mr. Seward says: He was a useful statesman and an eminent American. He gave proof by his deeds of his uniform philanthropy and love of justice.

Prince Napoleon Leaves Paris.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—The announcement last night that Prince Napoleon had left Paris was premature. His notice to depart directed him to leave Amoon to-day, but not having complied therewith, at 12:30, he was waited upon by the Secretary of the Prefect and two agents of the Government, with orders to follow them toward the Island. The Prince, therefore, left the city, and Princess Clothilde voluntarily followed him.

The Russian Duke Alexis has left Hongkong for Shanghai.

MEXICO.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 4, via HAVANA, Oct. 12.—President Tejada, in an address to Congress said that affairs with foreign Governments were in a satisfactory condition. He was about to inaugurate economic reforms.

Typhus fever is prevalent throughout the country.

Twenty soldiers were killed and seven sentinels while deserting from Puebla, were recaptured and executed.

Disturbances at Minatitlan continue. Small towns have been burned. Several persons have been executed.

A Commission will be appointed by Congress to investigate alleged outrages on the Rio Grande.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—To-day the Italian residents in the city celebrated the 380th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus in fine style. The procession through the streets was composed of the Garibaldi Guards and other Italian societies, accompanied with music. In the procession was a model of the Santa Maria, the flagship of Columbus, under full sail. The celebrators marched to Hayes' Park, where there were speeches, music and festivities appropriate to the occasion.

Joseph Farugo, who has been employed upon the steamer Olympia, was to-day arrested upon a warrant charging him with attempting to kill the cook of that vessel on her passage from Portland. The alleged murderous assault consisted in shooting with a pistol.

This morning, while the Grant Invincibles were returning to their quarters from the Vallejo boat, a fellow threw a stone into the procession as it was passing along Pacific street. He was set upon and nearly pommelled into a jelly. Some were for hanging him to a lamp post.

No arrivals of vessels from abroad to day. Weather close and cloudy.

A party of thirty men, thoroughly equipped for camp life, left this city to-day by the Orizaba. Their destination could not be ascertained, as all were reticent, but it is supposed they are after diamonds.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

WOODLAND, Oct. 13.—John M. Coghlan addressed a meeting of 1,200 citizens at this place last evening. The greater portion of his speech was devoted to the vindicating of his vote on the Goat Island bill.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—The Arizona Miner, dated Prescott, October 5th, has the following: George Brecker, aged 30, a native of Pennsylvania, died on Monday last at Bowman's Aqua Fria Ranch, from a wound in the head by a pistol bullet. It is supposed to be a suicide.

Indians are straggling back to the Verde Reservation. Fifty have recently returned.

Governor Safford arrived from Tucson en route to Mohave and Yuma counties.

There is no opponent to R. C. McCormick for re-election to Congress.

SANTA ROSA, Oct. 13.—This morning about 11 o'clock Samuel Box shot and killed Washington Guthrie, twelve miles from this place. The difficulty occurred regarding the custody of the children of the deceased, five in number, who had been awarded by the Courts in three different cases to the custody of Mrs. Box. The deceased went to the residence of Mr. Box to take the children away by force, and was killed in the attempt. Mr. Box came to Santa Rosa and surrendered himself to the custody of the Sheriff.

ANAHEIM, Oct. 13.—Hon. J. F. Swift and J. G. Eastman addressed the Republicans of this place last evening. The large hall, capable of seating five hundred people, was crowded to its utmost capacity with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. It is considered to be the largest political gathering ever convened in this place. Thirty new members joined the Grant and Wilson club, several withdrawing their names from the Greeley and Brown club.

PEACEVILLE, Oct. 13.—A new town, eight miles above here, was entirely burned up last night, nothing of value being saved. Many escaped from the burning building with only their night clothes. Loss, $15,000.

At Pleasant Valley the Democrats opened out last night with a meeting larger than that of the Republicans of a few days previous.

WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

HILLSBORO, Oct. 13, 1872.

The weather has cleared up and everything bids fair for a pleasant time during Fair week.

Mrs. Saunders & Brandama, of Portland, have opened an eating house on the corner opposite the grand entrance; Goodell & Co., of Forest Grove, a tobacco and fruit stand; Clink, a fruit and soda stand; Currier, a picture and artist's gallery, chromos, &c; Cory & Robinson, photograph gallery; Ireland and Stewart, each a stand; R. O. Barratt, a feed shed.

The following horses have arrived: Girds Buckskin and Plowboy; Tennant, with 3-year old and other horses, have arrived; names and owners not known.

The track is in fine condition, and everything bids fair for a brisk run at 1 o'clock between the following 2-year olds, which have been entered: W. G. Scoggin's Ali; J. F. Bybee's Weasel, and Young's Will Bingham and two others, not yet named.

In all probability there will be just half stalls and pens enough for the stock brought in for exhibition. All have been engaged for some time back, and the erection of additional stalls does not keep up with the demand, being engaged as fast as completed.

Wilson's Circus agent and the President seem to be at odds on the question of rent, and a lot, we understand, has been secured for the canvas just outside of the gate, but we only look upon this as preliminary to a compromise.

A shooting affray took place last night on the Fair Grounds. It seems that a lot of drunken fellows were passing the grounds, when a man got up to run some horses out that had got in. An altercation took place between them, and the drunken party fired a couple of shots, which did no damage.

LETTER FROM CLARKE COUNTY, W. T.

VANCOUVER, W. T., Oct. 12, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The Vancouver Register, of this day, has something to say about "a corrupt bargain" offered by the Republicans of this county. As offsetting this, the Republicans of Clarke county wish, through your columns, to state some facts. The Republicans of this county were approached by the proprietor of the Register, who demanded five hundred dollars for advocating the election of Garfielle and the general Republican ticket. This demand the Republicans refused to meet, but they offered to pay a reasonable sum if the Register would publish the ticket, that being all the assistance they needed. This offer was refused, the publisher demanding five hundred dollars or nothing. Then the Republicans offered seven hundred dollars for the paper right out, but one thousand was demanded, and refused. Now the "corruption" is just this: The publisher of the Register demanded five hundred dollars of Mr. Garfielde and the county Republicans, which they refused to give, hence the charge of base conduct. These are facts. If denied, the proof is ready, and will be published.

CLARKE COUNTY.

Peter Cartwright.

WONDERFUL LIFE OF THE GOOD OLD METHODIST CLERGYMAN—INCIDENTS IN HIS LIFE.

The death of Peter Cartwright, the eminent Methodist Missionary and preacher, has been already announced. We give below more incidents of his wonderful career:

A WILD YOUTH CONVERTED.

Wicked boys will be filled with renewed hope when they learn that young Cartwright, according to his own story, was a wild, reckless boy, and delighted in horse racing, card playing and dancing, and went into young company. Though not initiated into the tricks of vulgar gamblers, he was very successful in winning money. Peter's evil habits will hardly be wondered at, when it is remembered that his teacher was a fugitive murderer from Georgia, who had killed the Sheriff when the latter attempted to arrest him for crime.

Peter was converted in 1801. The change was very sudden. He had been to a wedding about five miles from home, and danced until a late hour. Soon after his return home, while he was pacing the floor, reflecting on the manner in which he had spent the day and evening, all of a sudden blood rushed to his head, his heart palpitating, and in a few minutes he turned quite blind. He imagined himself about to die, cried for mercy, and promised to serve the Lord, if spared. After recovering from the attack, he sold his race horse, burned his pack of cards, and took to reading the Testament. One day, while in anguish over his sinfulness, it appeared to him that he heard a voice from Heaven saying: "Peter, look at me!" His sins, however, were not forgiven until some time after, when he received a heavenly intimation to that effect. Peter commenced to attend camp-meetings, and he tells the following curious story of what occurred at one of them:

A DUTCHMAN'S CROSS.

The Rev. Mr. Lee was preaching from the text, "Except a man deny himself, and take up his cross, he cannot be any disciple." In the congregation was a Dutchman, an ignorant man, whose wife was a notorious scold. They were deeply touched by Mr. Lee's preaching. After services, Mr. Lee mounted his horse, and started for his evening appointment. After riding some distance, he saw a little ahead of him, a man trudging along, carrying a woman on his back. The traveler was a small man, the woman large and heavy. Mr. Lee rode up, and found that it was the Dutchman, carrying his scolding wife. "You did tell us," said the Dutchman, "that we must take up the cross, or we could not be saved, and dish woman is de greatest cross I have."

HOW CARTWRIGHT ESCAPED A WHIPPING.

At one of my appointments in 1804, there were two very finely dressed, fashionable young ladies attend by two brothers with loaded horse whips. The house was crowded and the young ladies took seats near where I stood. I was unwell and had a phial of peppermint. The congregation was melted into tears, and both the young ladies took the jerks.

"A man warned me, as I dismissed the assembly, that the two brothers had sworn they would horsewhip me for giving their sisters the jerks. I went out to the young men and expostulated. One said he had seen me take out a phial, in which I carried some snuff that gave his sisters the jerks. As quick as thought it came into my mind how to get clear of my horsewhipping, and pulling the phial out, I cried: "Yes, if I gave your sisters the jerks, I'll give them to you." I moved toward him. He backed. I advanced, and he wheeled and ran, warning me not to come near him, or he would kill me. It raised the laugh on him, and I escaped the whipping."

The Helena Herald which by the way is one of the live newspapers of the great Northwest is jubilant over the late Montana Territorial fair. Like Oregon's Annual "Agricultural horse too" ning and trotting time were better than any made in this State, the present year.

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS'S APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT—REPLY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAMS.

MR. STEPHENS'S APPEAL.

LIBERTY HALL, CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ga., August 6, 1872.

To His Excellency U. S. Grant, President of the United States, Washington, D. C.:

MY DEAR SIR: Of my own accord I make an appeal to your Excellency for clemency and mercy in behalf of all those prisoners now suffering in penitentiaries under sentence of courts in several States of the Union for a violation of the act of Congress generally known as the Ku Klux act, or for violation of the enforcement acts of Congress, under prosecutions found upon the last named act. Not a single one of these parties is known to me, nor am I acquainted in the slightest degree with the nature or character of the charges brought against them, not with the facts upon which the conviction of a single one of them was founded. My appeal is simply for clemency and mercy. It is founded upon these considerations:

First. My impression from what I have seen in the newspapers is that all these convictions rest upon the prosecutions for offences committed before the passage of the Ku Klux act. It is, I believe, well known that I was utterly opposed to all those combinations known as Ku Klux organizations. I have all my life been for law and order. Without, therefore, saying anything about outrages of this sort, either in extenuation or condemnation, before the passage of the act of 1871 for their suppression by the federal authorities, I repeat that my impression is that no one in whose behalf I make this application committed an offense for which he is now suffering after the passage of this act. This view of the case, it seems to me, should have weight with your Excellency.

Second. The great purpose of the Government, it seems to me, has been accomplished. I believe that no one now has any serious apprehensions of any further disturbances of this sort. Indeed as I said before, none, as I believe, have occurred since the passage of the act for their suppression by Federal authority.

Third. When the object of punishment upon the individual and upon society is accomplished, justice should be the rule with all government.

Fourth. Many of these parties, I understand, are infirm, a few of them old, several of them have families dependent upon them, all of them have suffered severely. For these reasons I ask you, by the authority vested in you, to grant them, one and all, a general pardon. I will present you with no view founded upon the Constitutionality of the act under which they are suffering, or even of its doubtful Constitutionality, but appeal to you to do, as Mr. Jefferson did with those imprisoned under the alien act of 1798, give them a release under the pardon power wisely lodged in such cases in the hands of the Executive.

If, my dear sir, this petition can not be granted, I trust it will not be deemed obtrusive. Let it be attributed solely to my deep symp

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING OCTOBER 14 1872

The Self Elected Censor

It is generally understood that the editor of the Bulletin has never been long in any party without engaging in an attempt to compass its overthrow His first effort is to become its leader Failing in that, as he invariably does fail he begins scheming for its destruction When he was pretending a zealous interest in the Democracy of Oregon some years ago he failed to receive the nomination of the party for State Printer and thereupon he entered into that conspiracy which was known as the National movement, and was the candidate of that faction against the regular nominee of the Democratic party for the office he had expected at the hands of the Democracy He was defeated, and was such a load upon the rest of the ticket as to drag them down also But the schism thus began, spread and grew strong till the Democracy, divided and discordant was defeated by the Republican party and sank out of sight for a number of years The Republicans, among whom we had the honor to be numbered, were of course, gratified at the result of this treason in the camp of their adversaries but their estimate of the character of the man through whom it was accomplished, was not different from that which such conduct usually brings The man who betrays your enemy into your hands is regarded by you the same as the man who betrays you into the hands of your enemies He has done you a service, but he is a traitor still

Again this person, finding it impossible to gain the confidence of the Republican party, went back to those he had betrayed, bent himself down before them, and licking their feet, begged to be again admitted to their ranks This was in the bitterest days of the great civil war when a very large and respectable portion of the Democratic party, appalled at the treasonable tendencies of the organization, had abandoned it and united their efforts with those of the Republicans to preserve the unity of the nation Those who were left, being in a hopeless minority, and bearing the odium that naturally attached to such a party, in a time of such intense party excitement, were ready to receive and lend comfort from any quarter, and this person was accordingly admitted to their ranks—not to their confidence He then became the conductor successively of a number of secession journals, till, discovering that he could by no means overcome that distrust which his former treasons had inspired, and could not, therefore, expect to be able to accomplish his purpose of making himself the leader of the party, he again commenced scheming for its destruction Finally he accepted the bribe of a small salary and became the editor of a so-called "independent paper devoted to the interests of a private corporation, which position he occupied till about three weeks since During his career in this "independent" business he professed to be in sympathy with the Republican party, but never allowed an opportunity for sowing seeds of discord in the party to pass unimproved

About three weeks ago he announced that the paper he edits would lay aside its character of an independent journal, and would thenceforth be a Republican organ Those who knew the history of the editor of Bulletin predicted that events would soon show that treason was meditated in this change, and the Republican party would find him what the Democracy had found him First a clamorous aspirant for leadership, and a failure in that, then an unscrupulous maligner of all members of the party who refused to accept him for their leader, and finally a secret ally of the opposition, serving the Democracy in the livery of Republicanism

These predictions have been verified already In the three short weeks of its professed Republicanism the Bulletin has passed through the first two periods of its predicted career, and entered upon the third Its assumption of leadership in the Republican party proved a miserable failure, and it immediately fell back into its old groove, and its columns were for a few days filled with personal laudation of the private character and enterprises of the gentleman who owns that paper and the steamboat and railway lines Then for a week it was devoted to attacks upon the political character of such men as Hon Ben Simpson, Hon J B Congle and other consistent Republicans whose party standing had never before been called in question by any person And now it joins hands with the Greeley organs and gives itself to the work of circulating slanders about prominent men in the Republican party in connection with the Presidential contest now going on It is well known that the invention of such slanders, and the retailing of those invented by others, constitute the entire plan of the Greeley campaign and that upon this alone the Greeleyites have from the beginning depended for success A specimen of this kind of campaign document we here exhibit It is from the Bulletin of the 11th instant

SHIPYARD Sept 14 1872

MR HORACE GREELEY — Dear Sir I am Captain of a Grant Club in this borough they number at present 150 men I can control easy 100 votes If you send me $500 and promise me a good office if you get elected I will get the votes for you If you do not comply with this I will have to go against you If you make up your mind to comply with these terms you can address me Yours respectfully

A G WILLIAMS

P S —Governor Geary promised me the office of senior of weights and measures but after he got elected he broke his word and gave the office to another man I hope you will not do the same thing Send the money by a money order

A G WILLIAMS

The Bulletin copies this letter from the New York Tribune and adds that A G Williams is quite of a pattern with some of the Grant Captains out this way This comment of the Bulletin's shows the animus of the Bulletin's editor toward the Republican party The Grant Captains in Oregon are of the sort that this letter indicates Williams to be But that is no all This letter was published in the Tribune the chief medium through which the defamers of Republicans circulate their falsehoods Mr Williams promptly denied the authorship of the letter pronounced it a forgery and challenged the proof upon which it was asserted that he had written it and the Tribune was compelled to do as we have compelled the Bulletin to do one or twice of late on other matters own up that it had no evidence and stand before the world as a convicted falsifier Even the Pittsburgh Leader a paper that is not understood to favor General Grant's election denounced the course of the Tribune in this matter and said that the Tribune letter imputed to Williams was a forgery Why did not the Bulletin if it wished to publish the letter also state the fact of its being a forgery Why did it publish the letter as genuine and add that the Grant Captains in Oregon are of the same sort as Williams is thus made to appear?

The truth is, this man has a natural penchant for treason In 1853 at Honolulu he took the oath of allegiance to the Kanaka King of the Sandwich Islands This can be proved He then deserted that government and turned up in this country as a Democratic politician In 1858 he betrayed the Democratic party and joined its opponents The war breaking out he went back to the Democracy when that party was supposed to be in sympathy with the treason by which the war was begun When the war was over and the Democracy recovered the ascendency in Oregon he was swift to enter into conspiracies with its enemies for its destruction Only three weeks a professed Republican he is already caught in the act of assisting the Greeleyites in their personal warfare against General Grant, carried on by the publication of known falsehoods and the suppression of known truth False to his Kanaka King false to the Democratic party false to the United States Government, false again to the Democracy, and now false to the Republican party before he has even had time since his coming into it to receive the right hand of fellowship, he has never been true to anything but his own false nature and the commands of the owners of the Bulletin and of the railroad and steamboat companies Such is the person who now takes upon himself the censorship of Republicans and Republican newspapers What think ye of him, fellow Republicans?

The Water Supply

The bill now before the Legislature to enable the city of Portland to supply its inhabitants with water was prepared by a committee consisting of the standing committee of the Common Council on Fire and Water and Messrs W S Ladd, H Thielsen C H Lewis S G Reed and P C Schuyler, Jr This committee was appointed at a public meeting of the citizens of Portland, called for that purpose It had the matter under consideration for several months, and procured the services of a competent engineer, Wm D Morris Esq a brother of the Rev Bishop Morris, to examine and report upon the feasibility and probable cost of obtaining a supply of water from the various sources which had been mentioned, and upon the advantages and disadvantages of the respective plans of supplying water The engineer made a very full and exhaustive report, and the Committee, with the Mayor and other prominent citizens met, and after hearing the report read, resolved to have a bill drawn up such as this one now before the Legislature, to be presented to the Council with the engineer's report, to the end that if the Council approved the bill they should certify the same to the Legislature with a request that it be passed The bill was accordingly drawn up and after being thoroughly discussed by the Committee at two different public meetings was sent into the Common Council, with the report of the Committee and of the engineer The Council did not act upon the matter at once, but ordered a meeting to be held for the discussion of the bill on a subsequent day and that copies of the reports and of the bill be furnished to each of the daily papers of the city for publication These were furnished, and the Bulletin and Herald, we believe, published abstracts of them, and the Oregonian published them in full The time set for the special meeting of the Council, and the object of the meeting were also announced through the papers Thus the citizens had the fullest notice and the amplest opportunity to make any objections or suggestions upon the subject At the time appointed the meeting was held—public, as all the Council's meetings are—and the bill, after some discussion, was approved by an unanimous vote The Auditor was then directed to have the report of the Committee the report of the engineer, and the draft of the bill, printed in pamphlet form and furnish a copy to each member of both Houses of the Legislature, which was done early in the session

This is the same bill now pending and of which the Bulletin of the 11th inst says

> We shall not favor a scheme, even though it be meritorious in itself, which is concocted and managed as this under consideration has been, by a very few and in such secret manner Though the bill might be generally good in itself, the mode in which it has been cut and dried is enough to arouse the suspicion that it contains latent grave faults or that it is susceptible of a hidden construction, known only to the cunning and expert ones who are the authors of it

Probably no bill ever presented to the Legislature was gotten up in a more public manner or by more honorable men The audacity of the Bulletin in thus speaking of this measure and the men who brought it forward, in only equalled by the mendacity of the charge that their proceedings were secret and that they have some private ends to accomplish by the passage of the bill It is a shame that a number of the most respectable men and heaviest tax payers of the city of Portland, can not meet, even in a public manner, to consult in regard to the best interests of the city, without subjecting themselves to the malicious attacks of Mr Holladay's newspaper

We are in receipt of a letter from B M Washburn, Esq, late proprietor of the Vancouver Register explaining the sale of that paper to the Democracy The substance of the explanation is that the proprietor was in such straightened circumstances as made it necessary for him to have pecuniary assistance that he informed the Republicans of this fact, and they did not assist him and that therefore he sold his paper to the Democrats That is the whole of the explanation and for ought we can see it is a reasonable one Mr Washburn, we suppose had as good a right to sell his newspaper establishment as any man has to sell property that is his own and we do not see as anybody has a right to complain of his conduct in doing so, unless it be his subscribers who became such with the understanding, that they were to have a Republican, and not a Democratic paper for their money The persons so situated have cause of complaint we suppose Mr Washburn himself will not question Whatever may have been the financial situation of the proprietor, these Republican subscribers had a right to expect a Republican paper if they paid for on

We are happy to be able to add that Mr Washburn still adheres to his Republican faith He says that his financial embarrassment cannot force him to abandon his principles We hope he may be enabled by himself in a situation to do good service for the party

A Grand Reception Ball will be given at Reed's Opera House Salem on Tuesday evening Oct 1st in honor of the Oregon Legislature of 1872 We return thanks to the Committee for a complimentary ticket

Roseburg is destitute of flutter though Douglas county is one of the best grazing portions of Oregon Bad management

The Herald has a calculation of the Presidential chances taken from a New Hampshire paper which foots up 187 electoral votes for Grant against 179 for Grogley From this computation, the Herald proceeds to speak in the most cheerful strain of the prospects of Greeley's election This count is based upon the returns of the last popular election in each State The Republicans only carried Connecticut by forty votes The Herald says just let the Democrats capture twenty one votes in Connecticut and that State with her six votes in the electoral college is given to Greeley, and he has then 185 votes to Grant's 181 Now this is a very cheerful view certainly But suppose the Republicans instead of the Democrats should capture those twenty one capturable votes, how would the matter stand

This programme of capturing twenty-one votes, and thus Greeleyizing the United States, is not, however the weakest point in the Herald's calculation Among the 179 votes counted for Greeley, are included three votes from Oregon ten from North Carolina, five from New Hampshire, three from Nevada, and fifteen from Indiana—in all thirty six—which are sure to be cast for Grant This would leave the vote for Grant 223 against 143 for Greeley And if we further carry over to Grant's column, as we may reasonably expect to carry to him in the election thirty five from New York, with probably quite a number from smaller States that are now considered Democratic, we can form something like an idea of the prospects which so exhilarates the Herald

A prominent Republican of Clarke county, W T, writes us that the party is better organized in that county than it has been for years past The sale of the Vancouver Register to the Democracy will prove no loss to the Republicans They have given it up with only such grief as arises from the fact that it was their local paper, and therefore had their friendship to a greater degree than it could have had simply as a Republican organ Although it was both a Republican organ and the home paper of the county, its going over to the enemy will not, we are assured cause any falling off of party strength It will take no votes with it

The great push that is making against Hon S Garfielde by the Greeleyites, and in which they have the active co operation of some men whom the Republicans have in times past honored far above their deserts, will be of no avail when the election day comes round Such an unnatural and unreasonable combination against the regular nominee of the party has tended rather to spur up the Republicans to increased activity than to discourage them It is highly probable that Garfielde's majority will be quite as large with the opposition of this combination, as it would be if the renegades from the Republican party had remained faithful

Hon S W Brown and Dr J W Turner will address the citizens of Clarke county W T on the political issues of the day, at the following times and places At Shubert's school house, on Monday, October 21st, at Mosier's school house, Tuesday, 22d at Bartlett's school house, Wednesday 23d, at Mill Plain school house, Friday, 25th, at Washougal school house, Saturday, 26th, at Central school house, Brush Prairie, Tuesday, 29th at Battleground school house, 30th Speaking to commence at precisely 1 o'clock

CITY.

CELESTIAL FEAST.—Although the Chinese, as a race, are addicted to performing their acts of worship in a mechanical or more-matter-of form ceremony, and with a monotonous repetition, and seldom court public opinion, they nevertheless excite an interest among the Caucasians, and the occurrence of each feast of the dead furnishes food for comment. Inquiry into their customs, for instance, brings out pertinent facts, and we learn that some of their barbarisms have actually been inaugurated among people who look with disdain upon the heathen Among this singular and antiquated people it is not uncommon to hire mourners to follow the hearse or express wagons to the cemeteries, and the charges for such services are so light, that a comparatively obscure individual, if not utterly bankrupt, can feel assured that the numerical strength of the turnout at his funeral will be a source of satisfaction to his relatives at home. That being the case, the Chinese of the city are not so indigent, but what when one dies, his slender coupee fence, or that of their friends or relatives, will insure the requisite amount of purchased sighs, wails and tears, in honor of his memory It is stated by those who are versed in Chinese lore, that these people, instead of endeavoring to lay up treasures in heaven, imagine they can lay up treasures in hell. The manner of laying up treasures of money and of clothing in hell for deceased relatives, or for one's own future use, is expeditious and very cheap. It consists simply of burning paper prepared in various ways, according to the object which it is supposed to represent, and which it is believed to become. Material for making clothing is represented by pieces of paper of various colors, each piece being some fifteen inches long, and eight or ten inches wide. These are done up in parcels, and are believed to become cloth, silk, etc, by or after the action of the fire, owing to the potency of the charm which is attached generally to each parcel Sometimes the shapes of different kinds of clothing are stamped upon the pieces of paper and afterward burned Then are believed to become ready made clothing. The spirits of the dead are expected to manufacture their own clothing out of the material furnished them ready made. Money is represented by square pieces of paper. If this popular notion among the Chinese had any foundation in truth, the number of wealthy Celestials in their spirit world would be immense. Three times during the year the dead are treated to a grand feast, that is, the good things are spread about their resting places and then disposed of by disconsolate friends and relatives.

CUNNING THIEF.—Chinese are very cunning rogues, and while engaged in the act of pilfering, will endeavor to create the impression that they are the most honest people in the world. A few days ago, we observed a Chinaman moving slowly around on the back streets, as if buried in abstraction. So absorbed was this old fellow, that he did not observe what was transpiring around him. Innocence and Mongolian simplicity In his hand he held a long cane, which, at first glance, might have been mistaken for a walking stick, except that it was too long for that purpose. The point of the cane was whittled down very sharp. Pretty soon "John" stopped opposite a yard in which were standing a number of pear and apple trees. A quantity of the rich mellow fruit lay scattered in profusion over the ground. "John" paused carelessly, and leaned, as if weary, up against the fence. He cast his almond-shaped eyes down at the tempting fruit, then he looked up at the sky Next he swung his cane round and round between his thumb and forefinger a la abejalah, poised it daintily, and after casting furtive glances to the right and left to see if his mysterious movements were attracting attention, he stealthily inserted the aforesaid cane between the pickets. The puzzle was solved in an instant. The sharp pointed stick was brought into requisition with an astonishing dexterity, and apples and pears were impaled in rapid succession and "hauled home." The process was repeated until John had filled his pockets, and all the available room, under his shirt was occupied by the pilfered fruit, when he walked coolly away swinging his cane, and looking as innocent as a "Baba in the Woods." Last Saturday we observed the same old coon in another locality, with the same cane and the same innocent look on his face. He was out "prospecting" again.

STEAMER OLYMPIA.—A Humboldt (Cal) paper in speaking of the opposition steamer Olympia which sailed from this port a short time ago, says "We hear again that there is a probability of a steamer being put on the route between San Francisco and this place, in opposition to the North Pacific Transportation Company. Capt. George Wright is the party named in connection with this enterprise. The Olympia is the steamer designated for this purpose and is owned by Capt. Wright. The time set is from the 5th to the 7th of October. The project of an opposition steamer to this place has been for a number of years past often announced, but for some reason or other it has ended with the announcement only. This time there would seem to be, if we can believe what men say, something in this that promises more substantial results than have come from former announcements."

OPEN AIR MEETINGS.—The open air meeting, held last evening at the corner of First and Stark streets, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, was well attended. The Association have added, by way of experiment, a new and rather novel feature to these out-door services. A brass band was secured, and at the time appointed for the commencement of the exercises, struck up some solemn and appropriate air, which answered all the purposes of singing, and by its novelty secured the presence of an unusually large crowd. In the course of the services where the singing occurred, the music discovered by the band was substituted. The exercises were conducted by the Rev. A. R. Medbery, of the First Baptist Church, who preached an interesting and impressive discourse.

IRON THE WATER.—While the switch locomotive Oakland was slowly backing down on the east side wharf, last Saturday, a fireman named John Evans was thrown into the river and severely injured. The engine was moving very slowly and Evans was leaning far over, looking back for the signal to be given him. He was standing on the locomotive step with one hand holding to a bolt attached to the oil box. The bolt, which was not very securely fastened, slipped out and Evans was precipitated into the river. The water was not more than five or six feet deep, or else Evans would have been drowned before he could have been fished out. In falling he struck on a log and was insensible for some time after being rescued from peril. He is now in the railroad hospital.

THEATRICAL.—The Advertiser says the Zavistowski Sisters opened in "Robin Hood" at the Howard, Boston, on Monday, 16th inst, and met with a warm reception They are much the same as when there last, except Alice, who dances and sings better, and who now seems to lead the trio in point of excellence. James Vincent has made a decided hit by his very humorous performance of "Maid Marian."

Mr. George Pauncefort, the well known reader of Dickens and Shakespeare, was recently the beneficiary of a complimentary benefit at Honolulu, given by the citizens of that place

The Royal Tycoon Troupe of Japanese are performing their wonderful feats at St Paul, Minnesota.

SAMPLES.—Mr. DeBrans, agent at Gray's magnificent music store, has placed on our table two pieces of new and beautiful sheet music, "Leaf Death" and "Little Footsteps." They are samples of a splendid lot just received All lovers of the "heavenly art" of music should call on Mr. DeBrans in Odd Fellows' Temple, where they will be sure to find any and everything usually kept in a first class establishment of the kind. Musical publications of the best character and the finest instruments are specialties at Gray's.

SAD SPECTACLE.—Last evening about five o'clock, an old gray haired man was observed lying on the sidewalk near the corner of Front and Stark streets, in a beastly state of intoxication. He was suffered to lie in that exposed condition for some time Some considerate person at last took compassion on the man, and carried him away to some less public place. The victim was an old and very respectable appearing person, with all the outward seeming of a gentleman as far as dress and looks were concerned

ARRANGEMENTS MADE.—We are requested to state that Dr. Haskell has made arrangements with the owner of the Stark-street ferry by which all persons in East Portland who desire to attend the performances at the circus this evening, on the occasion of the grand complimentary benefit tendered John Wilson, will not be required to pay ferriage. The company have chartered the boat for the evening, and those who attend will be ferried both ways free.

HANDS DISCHARGED.—We are authentically informed that within the last few weeks a number of men employed on the Oregon and California Railroad have been discharged and that others are soon to follow. This is, probably, more attributable to the gradual suspension of work along the line, as the winter is coming on, than to the necessity of cutting down the running expenses of the road

NOT HEARD FROM.—As yet nothing has been heard from the petition for a charter for the organization of a new Lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men in this city, which was forwarded to the Grand Council that assembled at Nashville, Tennessee, on the 10th ult. The petition referred to, was sent east over a month ago The charter has no doubt been granted and is probably on its way to this city.

NEARLY A FIRE.—A narrow escape from a disastrous fire occurred on First street last Saturday about noon Smoke was observed to issue from between two wooden buildings Search for the cause was at once instituted, when it was discovered that a chimney was on fire, caused by a defective flue By much exertion the fire was extinguished, without communicating a general alarm

ARRESTED.—Officers Schoeppe and Kelly arrested Saturday evening a Chinaman, who is accused of having on Friday evening broke into the back entrance of the Merchant's Exchange saloon, Washington street, and stolen one dozen bottles of champagne, one case porter, one bottle sherry wine and 300 cigars. He gave bonds in $250 to appear for trial this morning.

DETAINED.—The steamer John L. Stephens did not sail for her destination until yesterday morning. The cause of the temporary postponement was on the account of a grand reception party and supper, which was tendered the Northern Pacific Railroad magnates by Mr. Holladay at his residence, Saturday evening.

PROPELLER.—The Dixie Thompson took down this morning a propeller, cost at one of the foundries of the city, which will be attached to the tug boat Ben Holladay, the propeller of that vessel having become disabled or broken in some manner. She will be beached at Astoria until the repairs can be made.

DISPENSATION.—A dispensation was received last Saturday from the Grand Grove of California of the Ancient Order of Druids, authorizing the organization of a Grove of that Order at Salem. We are informed that the proper officer will probably proceed to Salem the present week for that purpose.

KICKED OVER.—The wife of the barber in East Portland, while milking a cow a few days ago, was kicked over by the animal and then run over. She was picked up and found to be severely injured. One of her legs was nearly broken and her body bruised in several places by the cow's hoof.

CLUB MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Portland Sportsman's Club was held at the Police Court Rooms Saturday evening. After reading the minutes of the previous meeting the Club adjourned until next Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock.

ARM HURT.—Saturday evening about 6 o'clock, as a small boy was crossing Fourth street, near Jefferson, he stumbled and fell headlong over a pile of lumber. One of his arms was badly bruised by the fall. He was carried home and cared for.

IN AID OF.—The Concert to be given at the new Masonic Hall in this city to morrow evening, will be to aid the members of Multnomah Lodge in the payment of the assessment of stock which has been taken in the Good Templar Hall Association.

AT THE SHOP.—The locomotive Eugene and tender, after being landed on the east side wharf, Saturday, was taken at once to the car shops, where she will be collared up and placed in condition to take the road.

TO LEVY TAX.—The County Court will convene on Wednesday next, for the transaction of county business. Principal among the duties of the Court will be the levying of the county taxes for the ensuing year.

PERMITS.—Building permits continue to be issued, notwithstanding the lateness of the season, and the number of structures already erected. However the great rush of the season has closed for the year.

TO SEA.—The brigs Orient and Perpetua and bark Manila, having all completed their respective cargoes, and made the necessary preparations, were to have been towed out to sea yesterday morning.

FOR WALLA WALLA.—The narrow guage locomotive and a number of car trucks, belonging to the Columbia River and Walla Walla Railroad, were shipped this morning on the Dalles packet.

DEFERRED.—The case of John Beeman, accused of the larceny of $40 from John Fiztle, at the Dalles, was continued in the Police Court by consent until this morning at 10 o'clock.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The U S. Circuit Court will convene this morning. The U. S District Court will meet to-morrow.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Washington Social Club will give their first grand soiree at the Armory Hall on the evening of the 19th inst.

The members of Excelsior Encampment No. 2, Champions of the Red Cross, will give an Oyster Supper at the Odd Fellow's Hall, East Portland, on Wednesday evening, Oct 23d

There was a splendid exhibition yesterday at Canyon Gordon by Master Eugene, Miss Zadie Zelmar and Barney O'Neil. Gymnastic, acrobatic and vocal exercises were the order of the programme.

At the grand pavilion of the great circus company to day at 2 o'clock P. M. a splendid matinee will be given, which all should attend and especially should parents take their children, as the performances will be of a character to fill the little ones brim full of delight

To morrow evening a grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given at the new Masonic Hall. A number of amateur vocalists of the city —both ladies and gentlemen—will participate on the occasion The great Vivian has also volunteered his services on that evening.

After a successful theatrical season at Salem, during the present session of the Legislature and the State Fair, Manager Waldron and his excellent troupe returned to this city from Salem last evening. The company, during the season just closed at that place, were quite liberally patronized, and the theatrical run can be safely set down as successful to the management. The houses for the several weeks preceding the Fair were uniformly good, and during the continuance of that great annual gathering were overwhelming. Our public will be gratified to learn of the financial results of the season just closed, as Mr. Waldron is a great favorite here, and by his perseverence, enterprise and efforts in behalf of the profession, certainly deserves a fair measure of success. The dearth of amusement which has prevailed in this city for three weeks (excepting the last week, during which time the circus company has been performing), promises to be brought to a close. A fall and winter season will be inaugurated at Pro Fino Theater this evening. The splendid play of "Wild Oats" will be produced as the opening piece, by the excellent company.

This evening a grand complimentary benefit has been tendered John Wilson by the company, on which occasion there will be presented some entirely new features in the circus line. Twelve ladies and gentlemen have volunteered and will give a vocal and instrumental concert in the pavilion immediately after the performance by the company, to which all holding tickets to the first performance will be admitted without extra charge and the tickets being good for the afternoon or evening. A reduction of the price of admission has been made, being one dollar to the dress circle and fifty cents to the family circle, children half price. A prize of ten dollars in gold will be given to the author of the best original conundrum to be decided by the audience and read by the clown from the ring. A gentleman well-known in this city has volunteered to assume the role of a merry son of Momus. But time and space would fail us to tell all the many attractions which this standard troupe will offer to the public on this last day of the season in our city. Mr. Wilson has never brought into our State a second rate show, and of those which he has introduced, the present is decidedly the best, and the rousing benefit which he is certain to receive this afternoon and evening, will only be a merited compliment to his great enterprise. Dr. Haskell, the Agent of this mammoth institution, is one of those live, energetic gentlemen who is well up to his business. He starts through the valley on his way to San Francisco to morrow, to make arrangements for the performances by this company at various points along his route, and being an ex member of the press, we respectfully commend him to the courtesies of all our professional brethren, assuring them that they will find in him a whole souled gentleman.

Our Bodily Infirmities.

Physical infirmities are the lot of all Millions are always sick No man, woman or child is uniformly in perfect health Much, however, of the sickness and suffering which render life a burden to so many of our fellow-beings is due to carelessness and neglect A mighty antidote to the leading causes of disease has been provided It is as harmless as it is efficient. No poisonous drug enters into its composition. It is an undefiled stimulant, tonic and aperient, of which every ingredient is vegetable. This unexceptionable preventive and restorative medicine is not "a new thing under the sun" Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will soon have been before the world a quarter of a century, and it is not too much to say that thousands, aye, tens of thousands, are now living who would have been in their graves years ago, had they not been strengthened and sustained by this wholesome stimulant Thoroughly with which minor ailments often become, when neglected obstinate diseases, is well known. This tonic is famous for the immediate check which it gives to those breeders of deadly disorders The sensation of languor, the sick headache, the nervousness, the indisposition to exertion, the nausea, the confusion of ideas, the physical debility, which are incident to premonish us of the approach of serious danger, are invariably removed by a few doses of the Bitters The fame of this preparation as a genuine specific for dyspepsia, bilious complaints, malarious fevers rheumatism and chronic debility, is as wide as the world; and in those days of infamous charlatanism, when fierce cathartics, that rob it of invalid of the last remnants of life's strength, are advertised as invigorants (!), it is indeed a blessing to mankind that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are everywhere procurable, and everywhere popular

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

A Good Talker

The "Monthly Gossip" in the October number of Lippincott's Magazine contains this capital story:

Perhaps the most brilliant conversationalist that Virginia or the United States ever produced was the late Lyttleton Waller Tazewell. Unfortunately for his reputation as to consistency and firmness of opinion, his mind was so capacious and well stored that it was impossible for him not to see all sides of any subject on which he conversed, and hence it was not always easy—indeed, it was often extremely difficult—for his hearers to ascertain what his real opinion was. In illustration of this peculiarity of Governor Tazewell, the following anecdote is told:

When the nullification trouble was at its height, Mr. Calhoun sent William C. Preston to Richmond to sound the first Gov. Floyd, father of John B. Floyd, Secretary of War under Buchanan, as to what might be expected of Virginia in case South Carolina became involved in a war with the federal government. The case being one of great importance, and Gov. Floyd having the utmost confidence in Gov. Tazewell's judgment, the latter was summoned to the State capital, and the conference took place in the Executive Mansion at night soon after supper.

Mr. Tazewell being called upon for his opinion, began. A stream of brilliant and forcible words poured from his fluent lips, enchanting and delighting his two auditors. At the expiration of an hour, Gov. Floyd ventured to interrupt him: "Your opinion, then, is—"

"Wait a moment," said Tazewell. Diverging from the line of his previous remarks, he cornsecated for another hour as forcibly as before.

It was then Preston's turn to intercept—and if possible arrest—the flow of talk:

"We may conclude, then, Mr. Tazewell, that you hold—"

"No, not all. You quite misapprehend me."

Taking another point of departure he went on from hour to hour, zigzagging and wormfencing at each interruption, until at last the broad daylight flooded the room.

"Bless my soul!" said he, looking up surprised, "it is morning! Floyd, if you will give me a bowl of water to wash my face, and a julep, I will lie down for an hour or two to rest myself, and to-night, if you choose, we will resume our conversation. I am afraid I have not made myself quite clear to either of you gentlemen."

The water and the julep were duly brought and the finent talker went up to his chamber.

Floyd and Preston remained staring at each other for a long time in profound silence. At length Mr. Preston said, "Have you any idea what Mr. Tazewell's real opinion is?"

"None whatever. Have you?"

"Not the remotest conception. Do you think he has any opinion?"

"Most certainly he has every opinion that any man over had or could have on this subject, and a great many more beside. But what his final opinion will be, no living man, not even Tazewell himself, will ever discern."

The "conversation," as Mr. Tazewell was pleased to call it, was never resumed.

QUEENLY MATCHMAKER.—When Edward the Fourth was on the throne of England, he was so desirous to secure every letter or dispatch written by Margaret of Anjou, that heroic wife of an unheroic king, that the penalty of death was awarded against any person who receiving a letter, or being in possession of a letter from Queen Margaret, delayed in surrendering the same to the government. One would suppose that such a penalty would lead every individual holding such documents, if not to surrender at least to destroy them. But human nature is perverse; also bold, courageous, defiant. Many of Margaret's correspondents hid away the letters she had written to them; some of these have lately been published by the Camden Society. The volume is one of the most interesting of the series published by that society, and the letters themselves are creditable to the writer. They show her less as a fiercely struggling, deeply sorrowing, terribly avenging queen, than as a sympathizing woman, not so busy in her own affairs as to lack time for being interested in the affairs of others. She is ever ready to say a good word for a worthy man seeking advancement, and her heart responds to appeals from young maidens with whom the course of true love does not run smooth. For them, Queen Margaret writes with affectionate urgency to that sort of sire who is apt to say of a suitor to his daughter, who is unwelcome to himself, "I can't imagine what the girl can see in such a fellow, to like him!" To such stern fathers Margaret of Anjou writes like a wise and affectionate woman. She may be called a "matchmaker," for she seems to have gone to the work of coupling with great alacrity, but we are sure that many a young couple, in those turbulent times, owed to her a happiness and a harmony in their married life which poor Margaret never enjoyed in her own.—Temple Bar.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Ex-President Johnson is still bobbing around Western Tennessee, wrapped in the American flag and the Constitution of his country.

The entire Liberal strength in Maine turns out to be exactly 700 in a vote of 127,000. "What was the use of making such a row about a few cabbages?"

Charles P. Kimball, late Democratic candidate for Governor in Maine, has announced his determination to retire entirely from political life. He probably regrets ever having entered it.

Blanton Duncan has started the True Democrat in Louisville, with the picture of a rooster as a figurehead, and the legend, "Neither Grant nor Greeley can scare this chicken."

The Albany Journal says it has an important announcement to make, and it is as follows; Mr. Greeley will immediately take the stump for General Grant in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. This intelligence will, we are sure, be received with general satisfaction. We have many excellent men on the stump, but there is not one who can help Grant and hurt Greeley as much as Greeley himself.

Writing to a Democrat who urged his nomination less than a year ago, Mr. Greeley said I am not the man you need. Your party is mostly free-trade, and I am a ferocious protectionist. I have no doubt that I might be nominated and elected by your help; but it would place us both in false positions. If I, who am avowedly interested, can see this, I am sure your good sense will, on reflection, realize it. (Letter to P. Donan, October 18, 1871.) Comment is unnecessary.

It appears that no less than 180,407 natives of British America prefer the United States to their country to live and work in.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 12, 1872

Gold in New York to-day, 114

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87c buying, 88 selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 10s. 2d., and 10s. 4d.

The week closes under a somewhat better condition of business affairs than it began, although there has been but little change for the better in financial circles. The strenuous horotofore so freejton-ly noted continues, and a careful husbandry of their resources on the part of our business men is highly necessary to keep the channels of trade unobstructed. That any signal disaster is indicated by the pressure in monetary affairs is not believed by far seeing financiers, though the care suggested not being observed, a crash might be brought about more readily when the money market is in its present depressed condition than in flush times.

Our city contemporaries are clamorous for the repeal of the usury law as a remedy for the tightness in our money market, although they have both failed to show why other countries and States not having any law on the subject have experienced the same pressure, or why from California, the golden State where the capitalist can loan his funds at as high a rate as any one will give is at this time crying out for more capital, and unable to furnish the money to get her enormous wheat crop out of the granary. The abrogation of law on the subject of interest has certainly not flooded the California market with money, or brought the abundance of capital into the State which these theorizers would have us believe would be the case in Oregon if the usury law, which they are pleased to say "disgraces our statute books," were abolished.

Our figures on the treasure shipments from this coast, contained in the commercial department yesterday were not taken from the Alta's report as indicated by the commercial editor of the Bulletin, but were compiled from a carefully prepared financial article in the San Francisco Commercial Herald and Market Review, admitted by all to be the most reliable commercial paper in California. That paper shows the excess of exported treasure this year over that of last to be eleven millions, exclusive of what goes through the mails, and estimated that to be between one and two millions.
